All requests should be made via e-mail to the Sparks Communications Department at least 24 hours PRIOR to the game you wish to cover. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by Sparks Communications prior to arriving at STAPLES Center. Credentials may be picked up at the primary entrance adjacent to 11th street (between Figueroa and Georgia streets) beginning two hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferrable.

CHICK HEARN PRESS ROOM

The Chick Hearn Press Room is located near the primary media entrance adjacent to 11th street on the Event Level. The stairway from the primary entrance as well as the elevator leads directly to the press room.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with WNBA policy, the Sparks and the visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending 1 hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access shall be granted from 6:00–6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. game).

Locker rooms are re-opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS OR PERSONAL PHOTOS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Game notes, rosters and stats are available in the press room two hours prior to game time. Statistics are distributed to the working media at the conclusion of each quarter as well as first half boxes and final boxes. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

MEALS

Beverages and snacks will be available in the Chick Hearn Press Room before and during the game.

CELEBRATING THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE WNBA

OWNERSHIP

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Earvin “Magic” Johnson has become the most powerful African-American businessman in the world. Having left the basketball court for the boardroom, today Mr. Johnson is Chairman and CEO of Magic Johnson Enterprises (MJE), which provides high-quality products and services that focus primarily on ethnically diverse and underserved urban communities through strategic alliances, investments, consulting and endorsements. The business mogul has successfully parlayed his skills and tenacity on the court into the business world, propelling his company to the status of #1 Brand in Urban America.

In 2012, as a member of Guggenheim Baseball Management (GBM), he became an owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, a Major League Baseball Franchise and in 2014 with some of the partners from GBM purchased the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA.

Mr. Johnson also serves as Chairman and Founder of the Magic Johnson Foundation, where his unwavering commitment to transform Urban America continues through HIV/AIDS Awareness & Prevention Programs, Community Empowerment Centers, and the Taylor Michaels Scholarship Program. The Foundation currently has 160 students on scholarship through their Taylor Michaels Scholarship Program, 18 empowerment centers that helps to bridge the digital divide, 5 HIV/AIDS Clinics assisting all patients regardless of their ability to pay and has tested over 40,000 individuals. Mr. Johnson is committed to bringing jobs and brand-named businesses to underserved communities. What he BELIEVES is reflected in what he DOES – and what he has and continues to do is to make a difference in the lives of urban America.

The conglomerate is comprised of multiple business entities and partnerships that include Yucaipa Johnson, a $500 million dollar private equity fund, ASPIRE, an African-American television network, SodexoMAGIC, a food service and facilities management company, Magic Johnson Bridgescape Academies, a high school drop-out prevention program, Clear Health Alliance, a healthcare provider with a specialty plan for HIV/AIDS patients, Magic Airport Holdings including Magic Johnson Sports, and Inner City Broadcasting Corporation.

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Mr. Walter is the Chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Mr. Walter is also Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board and Executive Committee of Guggenheim Capital, LLC. Mr. Walter serves as a trustee/director of several organizations including the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Security Benefit Corporation and the EquiTrust Life holding company. He is also a controlling shareholder of Delaware Life Holdings. Mr. Walter grew up in Iowa and received a B.S. from Creighton University and a J.D. from Northwestern University.

STAN KASTEN

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Stan Kasten became president and CEO of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. For more than three decades, Kasten has been a highly-respected sports figure and has developed a reputation for creating winning sports franchises.

In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously. He accomplished this unique feat with Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers. Kasten's professional career is highlighted by the Braves' 1995 World Championship. During his tenure, the Braves and Hawks made a combined 30 post-season appearances and claimed 15 division titles, including 12 in a row in the Braves' unprecedented run from 1991-2003. He was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career, including NBA committees on marketing, player pensions and expansion and the NBA Board of Governors, MLB's owners negotiating committee and chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee, and the NHL's Board of Governors and its executive committee. He is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Throughout his impressive sports career, Kasten has relied on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field. In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks. He held the position until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986.

During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten became the first -- and only -- NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87. With the help of future NBA Hall of Famer Dominique Wilkins, Kasten was able to build Atlanta into a perennial playoff contender, posting four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89, and set franchise attendance records. In the 1990s, Kasten guided Atlanta to a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances, including three 50-win seasons.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB. As president of the Braves, Kasten helped assemble talented teams that consistently competed for a world championship. Led by manager Bobby Cox, the Braves teams of that era were built around a deep pitching staff that featured Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, Steve Avery and John Smoltz. The cornerstone of the Braves' lineup was All-Star third baseman Chipper Jones. From 1991-2005, the Braves won 14 consecutive division titles, five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series. In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena. He was also involved in the design and construction of Turner Field. Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

On Jan. 24, 2014, Kasten was elected to the LA84 Foundation's board of directors. LA84 is the legacy of the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and primary funder of youth athletics in Southern California. Four days later, on Jan. 28, he was named 2013 Sports Executive of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

OWNERSHIP

OWNERSHIP

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Todd Boehly is a partner of Guggenheim Baseball Management. He became part owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. Boehly is also president of Guggenheim Partners, a privately held, global financial services firm with more than $180 billion in assets under management, and member of the Firm's Executive and Management Committees.

Mr. Boehly joined Guggenheim in 2001 in order to build and manage the firm's credit investing activities. He also led several transactions for Guggenheim, its shareholders, and its clients such as the demutualization and recapitalization of Security Benefit, Guggenheim's acquisition and integration of Rydex, the media transaction for the Los Angeles Dodgers, the acquisition of Dick Clark Productions, and the creation of Guggenheim Media.

Mr. Boehly also serves as the Chairman of the Board for Security Benefit, an insurance company dedicated to individual clients and their wealth preservation, is on the Guggenheim Museum Board, is a trustee for the Brunswick School and is a Board Member for FACES.

Before joining Guggenheim, Mr. Boehly worked at Whitney & Co. and Credit Suisse First Boston.

Mr. Boehly received his BBA from the College of William & Mary and spent a year abroad at the London School of Economics.

ROBERT L. PATTON, JR.

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Robert L. Patton, Jr. is a partner of Guggenheim Baseball Management. He became part owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. Patton resides in Fort Worth, Texas, where he was born and raised. Patton principally operates oil and gas properties in Texas and Kansas and has additional investments in many other sectors, including ranching and insurance. Patton serves on the Board of Security Benefit Corporation and the Advisory Council of the University of Texas College of Liberal Arts.

Patton received a B.B.A. from the University of Texas as well as a J.D. from St. Mary's University and LLM from Southern Methodist University.

PRESIDENT/COO

CHRISTINE N. SIMMONS

President & Chief Operations Officer

Christine Simmons enters her second season as president & chief operations officer of the Los Angeles Sparks.

Christine leads all aspects of the team's business operations including ticket and sponsorship sales and service, marketing, game operations, communications, community relations and finance.

Named to her current role following the 2014 season, she oversaw the Sparks day-to-day operations during its first season under the ownership group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and Mark R. Walter while also serving as an Executive Vice President with Magic Johnson Enterprises.

With over a decade of leadership experience in creating strategic alliances, leading business development and driving corporate initiatives, Christine has helped shape the business models for many Fortune 500 corporations and multi-million dollar companies.

A proud UCLA graduate, she serves as President-Elect of the Board of the UCLA Alumni Association and in 2012 was named Alumnus of the Year by the UCLA Black Alumni Association.

She is an active member of the Los Angeles community, serving on the Board of Directors for the Jenesse Center, the LA Sports Council, the Positive Coaching Alliance and on the NBA's Global Inclusion Council.

Her dedication and passion for giving back has earned her a number of honors including her most recent honor: Los Angeles African American Women's Public Policy Institute's 2015 Women in Action honoree.

SPARKS BASKETBALL

2016 LOS ANGELES SPARKS MEDIA GUIDE
CELEBRATING THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE WNBA

EXECUTIVE VP/GM

PENNY TOLER

Executive Vice President & General Manager

The longest standing general manager in the WNBA, Penny Toler enters her 18th season leading the Sparks basketball operations. In 1997, Toler scored the first basket in the WNBA and in 2014, she became the only female in professional sports to have consecutively been a player, executive and head coach for the same team when she took over the reins as head coach midway through the season.

Toler has served as general manager/vice president since her retirement as a player in November 1999, promoted to executive vice president/general manager in 2012. Her skills at roster-building and keen sense of basketball operations are complemented by her years as a professional athlete, making her one of the most respected general managers in the game.

In her 16 seasons as general manager, Toler has guided the team to two WNBA titles (2001, 2002), three conference championships (2001-2003) and 15 postseason appearances (1999-06 and 2008-10, 2012-15). Named general manager just prior to the 2000 season, she compiled back-to-back WNBA Championship teams two seasons into her tenure, to give Los Angeles titles in 2001 and 2002. Among all professional men and women sports leagues, Toler became the fastest person to go from being a player to general manager status to winning a championship in two years.

She added the title of head coach to her resume in 2014, taking over as head coach with 12 games remaining in the regular season. Toler guided the Sparks to a 6 – 6 (.500) record, leading the Sparks to its record-setting 14th WNBA postseason appearance. Following the end of the 2014 season, she hung up her coaching board to return to her dual role as general manager/executive vice president heading into the 2015 season.

As a player, she scored the first basket in WNBA history on June 21, 1997 vs. the New York Liberty, and finished the inaugural season as the Sparks' second leading scorer with 13.1 points per game. The following season, she shot an impressive 41.7% from three-point range to rank second in the WNBA while finishing fifth in the league in assists at 4.8 per game.

After three seasons, she hung up her basketball shoes following the 1999 season with WNBA career averages of 10.0 points, 2.8 rebounds and 4.0 assists in 88 games played. She retired from playing professional basketball with a combined 13 years overseas/WNBA experience.

In addition to the Sparks, she was also a member of the USA Basketball Women's Competition Committee where she assisted in the selection of three gold medal winning teams: the 2002 World University Championship games, the 2004 Olympic team and the 2008 Olympic team. In an effort to advance the women's game, she was also a strong advocate in implementing the 24- second shot clock and turning the two, 20-minutes halves into four, 10-minute quarters.

In 2006, she again made history when the Sparks retired #11 in recognition of her playing and management career, becoming the first female athlete to have her jersey retired at STAPLES Center.

Toler graduated from Long Beach State University in 1989 where she set several school records including career assists (513) and career free-throw percentage (.795). A member of two Final Four teams, (1987 and 1988) under Coach Joan Bonvicini, she earned Kodak All-America honors, Pacific Coast Athletic Association Player of the Year and Co-Big West Player of the Year recognition in 1988 and 1989. She scored 2,193 points in three seasons of play at LBSU (sitting out the 1985-86 season after transferring from San Diego State). Toler's impressive collegiate career was recognized with her induction into the LBSU Hall of Fame in 1995 and a jersey retirement ceremony in 2007 by the Forty-Niner Athletics Department.

Beyond the WNBA, Toler combined her sense of community and business savvy and began her "Points from Penny" program in 1998. The goal of the program is to teach youth in the Los Angeles and Las Vegas areas the fundamentals of basketball, the importance of teamwork and the value of competition. The program was nominated for several awards during its tenure including: the American Express Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. Since that time she has focused on bringing the same type of community-oriented programs to the Sparks front office.

Toler's hobbies include going to the movies, getting interior design tips from HGTV and mentoring. She also sits on the Long Beach State Advisory Committee for the sports management program. Raised in Washington D.C. with three brothers and four sisters, Toler resides in Los Angeles.

HEAD COACH

HEAD COACH

Head Coach

On January 5, 2015, Brian Agler joined the Los Angeles Sparks as the 12th head coach in franchise history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA.

In his first season with LA and 12th in the WNBA, Agler led the Sparks to a league-best 15th postseason appearance, finishing 4th in the Western Conference standings (14-20). The all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history, Agler enters the 2016 season two wins shy of 200 career WNBA (198) regular season wins to go along with his 78 wins in the ABL.

Agler came to the Sparks from Seattle, where he led the Storm to six consecutive playoff appearances (2008-2013) in seven years. He compiled a 136-102 (.571) record during his time in the Pacific Northwest, including his 212th career (WNBA and ABL) victory in 2012. The win on June 1 against the Tulsa Shock moved him past Van Chancellor (211), former coach of the Houston Comets, to become the all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball.

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm in 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season.

Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

In 1980, Agler graduated with a degree in special education and physical education. He received his master's degree in education from Pittsburg State University (Pittsburg, Kansas) in 1985. Agler and his wife Robin, have one son, Bryce, and one daughter, Taylor.

COACHING STAFF

AMBER STOCKS

Assistant Coach

Amber Stocks joined the Los Angeles Sparks coaching staff on April 14, 2015, bringing with her 13 years of coaching experience both in the WNBA and at the collegiate level.

A veteran women's collegiate basketball coach and analyst, Stocks joins Los Angeles for her first coaching stint in the WNBA. Most recently she served the past year as a men's and women's basketball analyst for ESPN3 and Big East Digital Network. Prior to moving to the television side, she was the program director and head coach of the Tucson HEAT Basketball Association in Arizona (2009-2013).

Stocks is also a certified strength and conditioning coach, overseeing strength and conditioning at the University of Notre Dame (1999-2000) and serving on the staff for the University of Cincinnati and Xavier (1998 – 1999) during her undergraduate careers. She attended the University of Cincinnati where she was a four-time Bearcat Scholar honoree, three-time Defensive Player Award recipient and helped lead the Bearcats to a Conference USA Championship. She graduated from UC in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion and education.

Stocks served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Xavier University from 2002-2009. During her years with Xavier, she helped put together six 20-win seasons and six national postseason appearances, including four NCAA Tournaments. Prior to joining Xavier in 2002, Stocks spent two seasons as women's director of basketball operations for the University of Tennessee, working closely with then Lady Vols head coach Pat Summitt on the daily operations of the program. She was part of the staff that helped lead Tennessee to two regular season SEC Championships and advanced to the 2002 Final Four.

TONYA EDWARDS

Assistant Coach

Tonya Edwards enters her first season as an assistant coach with the Sparks, bringing 18 years of coaching experience to her first coaching stint in the WNBA.

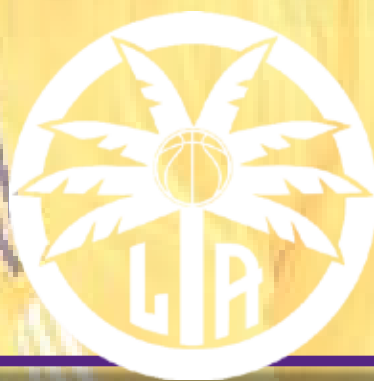

Edwards is reunited with head coach Brian Agler whom she played for in both the ABL (Columbus Quest) and the WNBA (Minnesota Lynx). Drafted in 1999 by Agler, then head coach of the Lynx, she was named a WNBA All-Star as a rookie, and went on to play five seasons in the league with Minnesota, Phoenix, and Charlotte before finishing her playing career overseas.

Most recently, Edwards served as the head coach of Alcorn State University (2008-15), where she led the Lady Braves to the SWAC

Her coaching career began at her alma mater, Northwestern Community High School, where she earned a 78-23 record in four seasons (1991-94), winning a state title in 1993 while subsequently being named the Michigan High School Coach of the Year.

Edwards attended the University of Tennessee (1986-1990), where she won two national championships with the Lady Vols (1987, 1989) and was named most valuable player in the 1987 NCAA Tournament. She finished her career with 1,309 points and was inducted into the UT Hall of Fame in 2006.

Championship game in 2012 and was named 2010-11 SWAC Coach of the Year. Prior to Alcorn State, Edwards served as an assistant coach at the University of Detroit-Mercy (2006-08), the Chicago Blaze (2005) of the National Women's Basketball League and two seasons at Mott Community College. (1990-92).

SPARKS HISTORY

2016 LOS ANGELES SPARKS MEDIA GUIDE
CELEBRATING THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE WNBA

SPARKS TIMELINE

SPARKS TIMELINE

SPARKS

June 21, 1997: The Los Angeles Sparks and the New York Liberty tip-off the first WNBA game at the Great Western Forum in Los Angeles in front of a crowd of 14,284. Sparks Guard Penny Toler scores the league's first basket at 19:01.

June 19, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie sets a WNBA record by pulling down 21 rebounds in the Sparks victory over the New York Liberty.

June 21, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie notches her seventh straight double-double, setting a WNBA record.

August 24, 1997: Los Angeles finishes its first season 14-14 and in second place in the Western Conference. Lisa Leslie finishes the season as the league leader in rebounds per game (9.5), while Haixia Zheng is a WNBA Peak Performer for her league-leading .618 field goal percentage. Zheng also wins the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

August 19, 1998: The Sparks finish the season 12-18 in a year of individual improvement, as Lisa Leslie increases her scoring average from 15.9 to 19.6 and her rebounding rate from 9.5 to 10.2. Tamecka Dixon also sees a rise in her scoring from 11.9 to 16.2.

SPARKS TIMELINE

SPARKS TIMELINE

August 30, 1999: The Sparks complete a season of firsts, finishing with its first winning record and a franchise-best 20 wins. Los Angeles also wins its first playoff series, knocking off the Sacramento Monarchs before falling to the eventual WNBA Champion Houston Comets in the Western Conference Finals.

August 20, 2000: The Sparks win a franchise-record 28 games, including two 12-game win streaks. After sweeping Phoenix in the first round of the playoffs, though, they fall once again in the Western Conference Finals to the eventual WNBA Champion Houston Comets.

November 12, 1999: Penny Toler retires and becomes the first WNBA player in league history to go from player to front office executive, becoming General Manager of Player Personnel.

SPARKS TIMELINE

SPARKS TIMELINE

June 5, 2001: After four seasons and a 45-17 record at the Forum, the Sparks begin play at STAPLES Center, located in the heart of Downtown Los Angeles. Los Angeles beats Cleveland 58-50 amidst a record-breaking 9-0 start to the season.

August 11, 2001: Sparks win a league-record and franchise-best 28 games and become the first WNBA team to go undefeated at home for an entire season, finishing 16-0 at STAPLES Center. The Sparks also top the league in points, defensive rebounds, total rebounds and assists per game.

August 27, 2001: Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to capture all three MVP awards (regular season, postseason and All-Star) in the same season, joining NBA greats Shaquille O'Neal, Michael Jordan and Willis Reed as the only professional basketball players to accomplish this feat. Sparks head coach Michael Cooper was also named WNBA Coach of the Year. Zheng also wins the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

July 11, 2002: Lisa Leslie is awarded the Best WNBA Player ESPY at the ESPY Awards, which honor the year's best athletic performances.

July 22, 2002: Sparks Center Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to record 3,000 career points during the Sparks 92-84 victory over the Orlando Miracle at STAPLES Center. Leslie also records 24 points and 21 rebounds, tying the league record she set on June 19, 1998.

September 1, 2001: Sparks claim their first WNBA Championship to give the city a sweep of professional basketball titles, sweeping the Eastern Conference Champion Charlotte Sting in the WNBA Finals.

August 25, 2002: Sparks Guard Nikki Teasley finishes the year averaging 11.5 points, 6.3 assists, and 5.1 rebounds, becoming the first player in WNBA history to average more than 10 points, five assists, and five rebounds in a season.

August 29, 2002: Sparks rookie guard Nikki Teasley nails the game-winning shot in the waning seconds of Game 2 of the WNBA Finals to help the Sparks become the second team in WNBA history to repeat as champions, defeating the New York Liberty. Los Angeles runs through the postseason with a perfect 6-0 record as the first of just three teams to do so in league history (Seattle '10, Minnesota '13) and finish its back-to-back championship run with a 12-1 playoff record.

Sparks center Lisa Leslie earns Finals MVP honors for the second straight year.

After retiring in November 1999 to serve as the Sparks General Manager, Penny Toler becomes the fastest player-turned-manager in any men's or women's league to assemble a championship team (two years).

SPARKS TIMELINE

SPARKS TIMELINE

LOS ANGELES

July 12, 2003: Sparks guard Nikki Teasley earns All-Star MVP honors with 10 points, six assists, six rebounds and five steals in the West's 84-75 victory in New York.

July 16, 2003: Lisa Leslie once again captures the "Best WNBA Player" ESPY, becoming the second two-time winner in the category.

July 30, 2003: Sparks Center Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to dunk in a game when she throws down a one-handed breakaway slam with 4:44 remaining in the first half of Los Angeles' 82-73 loss to the Miami Sol at STAPLES Center.

July 29, 2004: Sparks center Lisa Leslie scores her 4,000th career point, becoming the first WNBA player to reach the milestone.

September 10, 2004: Sparks center Lisa Leslie records the WNBA's third triple-double, tying Margo Dydek's record for blocked shots in the process as her 29 points, 15 rebounds and 10 blocked shots leads the Sparks to an 81-63 victory over the Detroit Shock.

September 28, 2004: The Sparks continue their impressive streak of playoff appearances by making it to postseason play for the sixth straight year with a 25-9 regular season record. The run of Western Conference Championships ends, however, with a first-round loss to the Sacramento Monarchs.

September 16, 2003: The Sparks win the Western Conference Championship and reach the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive year despite an injury-riddled season. The deciding Game 3 versus the Detroit Shock at The Palace of Auburn Hills proved to be a historic event as it was played before the largest crowd in WNBA history--22,076. The Shock's victory was sealed by Deanna Nolan's three-point basket with 53 seconds remaining and perfect free-throw shooting down the stretch.

October 9, 2004: Lisa Leslie captures the 2004 WNBA MVP Award, leading the league in rebounds per game and finishing third in scoring. Leslie and teammate Nikki Teasley each receive All-WNBA recognition.

SPARKS TIMELINE

SPARKS TIMELINE

- March 25, 2005: Sparks trade forward DeLisha Milton-Jones to the Washington Mystics for Chamique Holdsclaw.
- July 9, 2005: Sparks veteran Lisa Leslie continues to impress fans in Los Angeles with her 15.2 points per game and 71 total blocked shots. A 2005 All-Star, Leslie makes history as the first player to dunk in a WNBA All-Star game.

- September 2, 2005: With 13 wins and 16 losses under head coach Henry Bibby, assistant coach Joe "Jellybean" Bryant takes over for the final five games (4-1), allowing the team to finish squarely at .500 (17-17). With a perfectly split record, the Sparks catch a glimpse of the postseason but their tireless efforts are outmatched by the Monarchs for the second straight year.

- June 14, 2006: Lisa Leslie is named to the WNBA's All-Decade Team, a group of the league's 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years.
- June 26, 2006: Lisa Leslie becomes the first player in WNBA history to score 5,000 points.
- July 5, 2006: In a historic presentation, Penny Toler's decade of involvement with the Sparks as an exceptional player and dedicated General Manager are recognized when her No. 11 jersey is retired during a Sparks game, marking the first female jersey to be retired at STAPLES Center.
- July 7, 2006: Leslie's illustrious career is honored in an on-court celebration in which then-team president Johnny Buss dedicates the court to the record-breaking center, renaming it "Lisa Leslie Court".
- August 26, 2006: With Coach Bryant at the helm, the 2006 Sparks boast a 25-9 regular season record and come back to beat the Seattle Storm after falling behind 1-0 in the Western Conference Semifinals. The Sparks conclude the 2006 season when they are defeated at the Honda Center by the Sacramento Monarchs, who go on to win the WNBA title.

- September 3, 2006: Leslie is named WNBA Most Valuable Player for the third time. Over the course of the season, she earns four Player of the Week awards, weeks: 5/30, 6/19, 6/26 and 7/17.
- December 7, 2006: WNBA approves the sale of the Los Angeles Sparks from the Lakers to Katherine Goodman and Carla Christofferson. Sparks season ticket holders themselves, Christofferson and Goodman focus on connecting fans through fun and engaging experiences at STAPLES Center. The Sparks become one of six WNBA teams to be owned and operated independently of NBA teams.
- December 10, 2006: Lisa Leslie announces that she will take 2007 off to have her first child, Lauren.

SPARKS TIMELINE

May 22, 2007: Former Sparks coach and two-time WNBA Champion Michael Cooper rejoins the Sparks organization as head coach and leads the team to a season-opening victory over the Chicago Sky, 81-64.

June 12, 2007: Star forward Chamique Holdsclaw announces her abrupt retirement from the WNBA just five games into the season. Holdsclaw finishes her Sparks career with averages of 16.1 points and 6.4 rebounds over 63 games.

April 9, 2008: The Los Angeles Sparks select College Player of the Year and two-time defending NCAA Champion Candace Parker from Tennessee as the No. 1 draft pick in the 2008 WNBA Draft.

April 22, 2008: All-Star forward DeLisha Milton-Jones rejoins the Sparks in a trade with the Washington Mystics.

May 17, 2008: Candace Parker has a near triple-double in her WNBA debut at Phoenix with 34 points, 12 rebounds and eight assists.

June 22, 2008: Candace Parker records the league's second dunk in history with a slam over Indiana in the final seconds of the game.

June 24, 2008: Candace Parker records the leagues third dunk and first in back-to-back games with a slam over the Seattle Storm.

August 28, 2008: Lisa Leslie records 17 blocked shots in three games from 8/30-9/1 with eight apiece coming against the Monarchs and the Lynx.

September 19, 2008: The Sparks make their ninth playoff appearance and defeat the Seattle Storm in the first round before losing to San Antonio in the Western Conference Finals.

Lisa Leslie is named the WNBA's Defensive Player of the Year after recording 97 blocks and 49 steals.

July 15, 2007: Lisa Leslie wins her third "Best WNBA Player" ESPY, becoming the second three-time winner in the category.

August 19, 2007: Sparks finish 2007 at a franchise-worst 10-24 and miss the playoffs for the first time in nine years.

Sidney Spencer leads the Sparks in total points (327) and WNBA rookies in free-throw percentage (.881) and double-doubles (two) and is a Rookie of the Year finalist.

October 23, 2007: Sparks win the top pick in the 2008 WNBA Draft at the annual WNBA Draft Lottery.

August 1, 2008: The Sparks send Lisa Leslie, DeLisha Milton-Jones and Candace Parker to Beijing to compete in the 2008 Olympic Games.

August 23, 2008: The United States wins gold as Lisa Leslie captures her fourth gold medal in a row and improves her Olympic record to 32-0. Milton-Jones gets her second gold and Parker gets her first.

September 28, 2008: After defeating the Seattle Storm 2-1 in the first round playoff series, Los Angeles returns to the Western Conference Finals, where they come 1.3 seconds from returning to the WNBA Finals before a San Antonio Silver Stars game-winning basket. San Antonio also captures Game 3, ending the Sparks season.

October 1, 2008: Candace Parker and Lisa Leslie are named First Team All-WNBA. Parker paces the team in scoring (18.5 per game) and rebounds (9.5 per game), Leslie chips in 15.5 points per game. DeLisha Milton-Jones is also solid, averaging 13.9 points and 6.3 rebounds per game.

August 7, 1996: Val Ackerman is named first president of the WNBA.

October 23, 1996: Houston Comets forward Sheryl Swoopes becomes the first player signed by the WNBA.

October 30, 1996: WNBA announces eight teams to compete in the inaugural season – Charlotte, Cleveland, Houston, Los Angeles, New York, Phoenix, Sacramento and Utah.

January 22, 1997: The league's first 16 players are allocated to teams, an elite group comprised of Olympians and collegiate stars.

April 19, 1997: WNBA and Spalding introduce the league's official orange-and-oatmeal game ball during WNBA Pre-Draft Camp at Disney's Wide World of Sports complex in Orlando.

April 28, 1997: Tina Thompson is the first No. 1 draft pick, selected by the Houston Comets in the inaugural WNBA Draft.

June 21, 1997: The New York Liberty and the Los Angeles Sparks tip-off the first WNBA game at the Great Western Forum in Los Angeles. Sparks guard Penny Toler scores the league's first basket at 19:01. New York wins 67-57.

June 23, 1997: Utah Starzz becomes first team to pass the 100-point mark in a 102-89 victory over the Los Angeles Sparks.

July 2, 1997: New York Liberty center Rebecca Lobo wins her 100th consecutive personal victory when the Liberty defeat the Houston Comets 70-67. Winning streak comprises Lobo's 35-0 senior season at the University of Connecticut, 60-0 as member of U.S. Olympic Team and 5-0 as a member of the Liberty. The streak ends at 102.

August 30, 1997: The Houston Comets become the first WNBA Champions, employing the unstoppable Cynthia Cooper and a suffocating defense for a 65-51 victory over the New York Liberty at The Summit.

October 1, 1997: The WNBA announces that franchises in Detroit and Washington will join the fold as expansion teams for the 1998 season.

April 22, 1998: The league announces the addition of expansion teams in Orlando and Minnesota for the 1999 season, bringing the total number of teams to 12.

June 19, 1998: Los Angeles Sparks center Lisa Leslie sets a WNBA record by pulling down 21 rebounds in the Sparks' victory over the New York Liberty.

June 21, 1998: Lisa Leslie notches her seventh-straight double-double, setting a WNBA record.

July 18, 1998: Houston's Cynthia Cooper becomes the first player to reach 1,000 points during Comets' 75-44 rout of the Sacramento Monarchs.

July 29, 1998: Sacramento Monarchs guard Ticha Penicheiro dishes out 16 assists in a 75-67 loss vs. the Cleveland Rockers to set a WNBA record.

August 29, 1998: In Game 2 of the WNBA Finals, the Houston Comets, trailing the Phoenix Mercury 1-0 in the best-of-three series, erases a 12-point deficit in the final 7:24 to force overtime. Houston wins the series and claims its second of four titles.

April 29, 1999: The WNBA and WNBPA reaches final accord as the league's first Collective Bargaining Agreement is signed.

June 7, 1999: WNBA announces the addition of four expansion teams for the 2000 season – Indiana, Miami, Portland and Seattle. The WNBA family now includes 16 teams.

June 29, 1999: The Sacramento Monarchs and the Minnesota Lynx combine for a WNBA-record 21 three-pointers (10 by Sacramento, 11 by Minnesota) in the Monarchs' 86-72 victory over the Lynx.

July 14, 1999: Whitney Houston sings the National Anthem in front of an electrified crowd on hand at Madison Square Garden to witness the Inaugural WNBA All-Star Game. The West defeats the East 79-61 and Lisa Leslie is named MVP.

July 27, 1999: Sheryl Swoopes records the WNBA's first triple-double with 15 points, 14 rebounds and 10 assists in an 85-46 win over Detroit at the Compaq Center.

September 4, 1999: New York Liberty guard Teresa Weatherspoon nails a shot from beyond the midcourt line with 2.4 seconds remaining to give the Liberty a 68-67 victory over the Houston Comets in Game 2 of the WNBA Finals. The shot sends the series to a decisive Game 3, which the Comets win to claim their third straight WNBA title.

June 7, 2000: Cleveland Rockers forward Eva Nemcova ends her record-streak of 66 consecutive free throws with a miss against Orlando. Nemcova did not miss from the foul line from June 14, 1999 to June 5, 2000.

July 17, 2000: The West defeats the East 73-61 at the 2000 WNBA All-Star Game, hosted by the Phoenix Mercury at America West Arena. Houston's Tina Thompson captures MVP honors.

August 25, 2000: Cleveland Rockers guard Suzie McConnell Serio is named the recipient of the first Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award presented by American General, named in honor of Houston's Kim Perrot, who died of cancer in 1999.

WNBA TIMELINE

August 26, 2000: Cynthia Cooper turns in a clutch performance to earn her fourth WNBA Finals MVP as the Houston Comets claim fourth straight title by defeating the New York Liberty. In Game 1 at Madison Square Garden, Cooper converts a crucial three-point play with 25.4 seconds remaining to push the Comets' lead to five. In Game 2, she scored six of her 25 points in overtime and nine of Houston's final 18 points. It marks Cooper's last appearance in the WNBA Finals. She retires as the WNBA's all-time scoring leader.

June 2, 2001: Houston's Van Chancellor becomes first WNBA coach to record 100 victories as the Comets defeat the Detroit Shock 74-73.

June 7, 2001: Utah Starzz center Margo Dydek records the WNBA's second triple-double, setting a league record for blocked shots in the process as her 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocks leads Utah to an 82-79 win over Orlando.

July 3, 2001: Washington and Seattle battle through quadruple overtime – the longest game in WNBA history – before the Mystics edge the Storm 72-69.

July 7, 2001: Minnesota Lynx guard Katie Smith sets the WNBA single-game scoring record with a 46-point performance, including six three-pointers, in a 100-95 overtime loss to Los Angeles.

July 14, 2001: The West wins the 2001 WNBA All-Star Game in Orlando, defeating the East 80-72. Lisa Leslie earns her second All-Star MVP award.

July 30, 2001: Lisa Leslie scores her 2,538th point to become the WNBA's career scoring leader, surpassing Cynthia Cooper.

August 10, 2001: Katie Smith scores 22 points in Minnesota's 65-51 win over Seattle to break the WNBA single-season scoring record of 686 points set by Cynthia Cooper in 1999.

August 11, 2001: Los Angeles becomes the first team to go undefeated at home for an entire season, finishing 16-0 at the STAPLES Center.

August 27, 2001: The Charlotte Sting, after dropping the opener of the Eastern Conference Finals at home, go into Madison Square Garden and take both games against the Liberty to derail New York's hopes of making a third consecutive trip to the WNBA Finals. Charlotte advances to the Finals after a 1-10 season start.

September 1, 2001: The Los Angeles Sparks claim their first WNBA Championship to give the city of Los Angeles a sweep of professional basketball titles in 2001. Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to capture all three MVP awards in the same season, joining NBA greats Shaquille O'Neal, Michael Jordan and Willis Reed as the only pro hoopsters to accomplish this feat. Sparks coach Michael Cooper becomes the first person to claim NBA and WNBA titles, having won five championships as a player with the Lakers.

September 1, 2001: The WNBA welcomes its 10 millionth fan prior to Game 2 of the WNBA Finals at the STAPLES Center.

spoon's half-court shot at the buzzer to win Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals for the New York Liberty and send that series to a decisive third game. Ranking second was the WNBA's first ever game (NY Liberty at LA Sparks, June 21, 1997); third was Sparks' center Lisa Leslie throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history in the first half of a game vs. the Miami Sol.

October 7, 2011: The Minnesota Lynx captured their first WNBA title with a 73-67 win over the Atlanta Dream. Lynx guard/forward Seimone Augustus was named Finals MVP after leading the Lynx to a sweep in the best-of-five series. Augustus posted 22 points and seven assists in Game 1 and had a franchise-playoff record 36 points in Game 2, including 15 in the fourth quarter.

April 16, 2012: The 2012 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile took place at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, CT, marking the second straight year that the draft was held on the campus of the league's broadcast partner. Stanford's Nnemkadi Ogwumike (Sparks), Tennessee's Shekinna Stricklen (Storm), Notre Dame's Devereaux Peters (Lynx), Tennessee's Glory Johnson (Shock), and Miami's Shenise Johnson (Silver Stars) were the top five picks.

June 3, 2012: Angel McCoughtry of the Atlanta Dream sets the WNBA's single-game mark for most successful free throws without a miss, going 17-for-17 vs. Chicago.

June 15, 2012: With a win over Phoenix on June 15, the defending champion Minnesota Lynx set a WNBA record for the best start to a season, going 10-0 out of the gate before being upended by Seattle.

June 16, 2012: Already the WNBA's career steals leader, Tamika Catchings also took over the top spot in league history for career free throws made when she hit 6-of-8 from the charity stripe against Chicago.

June 17, 2012: Connecticut's Tina Charles, with 23 points and 22 rebounds at Atlanta, became the first player in WNBA history to log three 20-20 games in a career.

July 14-Aug. 15, 2012: The WNBA temporarily stops play to give players the opportunity to compete in the 2012 Olympic Games in London. The U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team – comprised of 12 WNBA players – defeated France in the gold medal game. The win gave the United States women their fifth consecutive Olympic gold medal and, dating back to the bronze medal game in 1992, stretched the team's winning streak to 41 games.

Sept. 18, 2012: Already the WNBA's all-time leading scorer, Tina Thompson (Seattle) became the first player in the history of the league to surpass 7,000 career points with her jump shot at the 9:03 mark of the second quarter of the Storm's victory over visiting Chicago at KeyArena. The milestone capped a season in which Thompson also became the first WNBA player to top 15,000 minutes played and 2,450 field goals made.

Aug. 28, 2012: A put-back basket against San Antonio by Minnesota Lynx center McWilliams-Franklin, moved the 14-year veteran and six-time All-Star into first place on the WNBA's career list for offensive rebounds, surpassing the 1,049 of Yolanda Griffith.

Sept. 22, 2012: Temeka Johnson of the Tulsa Shock finished the regular season with the league's best single-season mark in history for three-point FG percentage (.531, 34 of 64). On the same day, Ticha Penicheiro of the Chicago Sky plays the final game of her career and, with two assists, increases her WNBA career record to 2,599.

Sept. 26, 2012: The WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2013 WNBA Draft) was held for the first time at ESPN's studios in Bristol, Conn., live during the 6 p.m. ET edition of SportsCenter. The Phoenix Mercury ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Chicago Sky, Tulsa Shock, and Washington Mystics.

Oct. 21, 2012: Indiana defeated the defending champion Minnesota Lynx 3-games-to-1, giving the Fever its first WNBA championship in franchise history. Following Game 4, an 87-78 home win at Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Indiana forward Tamika Catchings was named MVP of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile. Catchings, a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the league's 2011 MVP, averaged 22.3 points, six rebounds, and two steals during the Finals.

Dec. 13, 2012: Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013: The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

March 28, 2013: On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013: For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2.

WNBA TIMELINE

One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the “3 to See” -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Skylar Diggins of Notre Dame. The Phoenix Mercury selected Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then took Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claimed Diggins third.

May 27, 2013: While the WNBA's 17th season officially tipped off on May 24, it was a May 27 Memorial Day TV double-header on ESPN2 that introduced the “3 to See” – Phoenix center Brittney Griner, Chicago guard/forward Elena Delle Donne, and Tulsa guard Skylar Diggins – to WNBA fans. Griner, Delle Donne, and Diggins, the first, second, and third overall draft picks in the 2013 Draft, were the featured players as Tulsa first hosted the Washington Mystics and Phoenix then hosted Chicago.

May 27, 2013: Brittney Griner, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2013 Draft, registered two dunks in her very first game, becoming the first WNBA player ever to dunk multiple times in the same game.

June 8, 2013: The WNBA becomes the first U.S. professional basketball league to implement “Ref Cam” as part of a game telecast. A wireless, HD, mini point-of-view camera positioned at eye-level on game official Lamont Simpson. “Ref Cam” allowed viewers to virtually be on the court when Indiana hosted Phoenix during a live ABC broadcast.

July 6, 2013: Mike Thibault moved ahead of Van Chancellor to become the head coach with the most regular-season victories in WNBA history. Thibault reached the milestone with the Washington Mystics' 62-59 win over the Seattle Storm. The win was Thibault's 212th regular-season victory as a WNBA head coach.

July 27, 2013: The Los Angeles Sparks' Candace Parker was crowned MVP of the 2013 Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game after setting an All-Star Game record with 23 points, topping the mark of 22 set by Swin Cash in 2009. Parker shot 10-for-13 from the field and chipped in 11 rebounds. Leading into the All-Star Game, the Chicago Sky's Elena Delle

Donne became the first rookie ever to lead all vote-getters for the event.

August 18, 2013: Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.

September 8, 2013: Second-year guard Riquna Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.

September 15, 2013: Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).

September 22, 2013: Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).

October 10, 2013: After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, six rebounds, and over two assists during the Finals series.

December 10, 2013: The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.

January 14, 2014: The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.

February 5, 2014: The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin “Magic” Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton, and Stan Kasten.

March 7, 2014: The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new “Time Off Bonus” (up to $50,000 per team) can be earned by a player who limits the amount of time she will play professional basketball (and/or play for a national team) during the off-season.

April 14, 2014: The 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm is televised live in primetime by ESPN2 from the floor of the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Chiney Ogwumike of Stanford University is selected No. 1 overall by the Connecticut Sun and, in the process, makes history. Ogwumike and her older sister, Nneka – the No. 1 overall pick in the 2012 Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks – join NFL stars Peyton and Eli Manning as the only siblings selected with the top pick in a North American professional sports league draft. The Tulsa Shock made Baylor University's Odyssey Sims the No. 2 overall pick and the San Antonio Stars claim Notre Dame's Kayla McBride third.

July 19, 2014: Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star 2014 takes place at US Airways Center, marking the second time the All-Star event takes place in Phoenix. The first WNBA All-Star game to go into overtime is won by the East, 125-124, after the Indiana Fever's Tamika Catchings grabs a defensive rebound and dribbles the length of the floor to score the game-winning layup with 6.9 seconds to play in OT.

Atlanta Dream guard Shoni Schimmel, who had been voted into the game as a starter by fans, lives up to her nickname, "Showtime Shoni," and becomes the first rookie ever to earn the All-Star game MVP award. Schimmel set All-Star records for points (29), made field goals (11), and made three-point field goals (7). Like Schimmel, Minnesota's Maya Moore (24 points) and Tulsa's Skylar Diggins (27 points) also surpassed the previous record for points in an All-Star game (23 by Los Angeles' Candace Parker in 2013).

August 5, 2014: The NBA's San Antonio Spurs announce they are hiring WNBA all-star guard Becky Hammon as an assistant coach under head coach Gregg Popovich. Hammon, then of the WNBA's San Antonio Stars and in the midst of her 16th season as a WNBA player, becomes the first full-time, paid female assistant coach in NBA history.

September 12, 2014: In the WNBA Finals, the Phoenix Mercury sweeps the Chicago Sky, 3-0, to win its third championship in franchise history. After taking the first two games of the best-of-five series at home by 21 and 29 points, respectively, the Mercury is led by guard Diana Taurasi, who scores 14 of her 24 points in the fourth quarter, and by forward Candice Dupree (24 points), as Phoenix edges host Chicago, 87-82, in Game 3. Taurasi, who is subsequently named Finals MVP for the second time in her career, breaks an 82-82 tie with an old-fashioned three-point play.

April 16, 2015: For the second straight year, the WNBA Draft presented by State Farm® is held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. With the No. 1 overall pick, the Seattle Storm makes Notre Dame guard and consensus All-American Jewell Loyd the first Fighting Irish player ever chosen with the top selection. The Tulsa Shock choose Sweden native Amanda Zahui B. of the University of Minnesota with the second overall selection, and the Storm uses its second pick in the top three on the University of Connecticut's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis. Loyd and Zahui B., each of whom leave college with eligibility remaining, enter the draft by virtue of turning 22 years of age during the 2015 calendar year.

June 24, 2015: Chicago's Elena Delle Donne scores a career-high 45 points in a win over Atlanta. Coupled with her 40-point effort at Tulsa on June 6, she becomes only the fourth player in league history with two 40-point games in the same season. Delle Donne would go on to be named the 2015 WNBA MVP presented by Samsung.

July 3, 2015: Becky Hammon, a former WNBA All-Star and current NBA assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs, becomes the first female head coach in the NBA's Las Vegas Summer League when the Spurs announce she will guide the team. Seventeen days later, on July 20, Hammon leads the Spurs to a Summer League title, becoming the first female coach to win a the title.

July 20, 2015: Tulsa Shock majority owner Bill Cameron announces plans to relocate the WNBA team to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the U.S. Cameron asks the WNBA to submit the request to the Board of Governors for approval.

July 21, 2015: Atlanta Dream forward/guard Angel McCoughtry becomes the second-fastest player in WNBA history to reach the 4,000-point milestone, accomplishing the feat in her 206th game (only Diana Taurasi reached the plateau in fewer games – 197).

July 23, 2015: The WNBA Board of Governors unanimously approves the relocation of the Tulsa Shock to the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area. The team then finished the season in Tulsa, reaching the playoffs for the first time since relocating from Detroit prior to the 2010 season.

July 25, 2015: In a game featuring 10 first-time All-Stars, the Western Conference defeats the Eastern Conference, 117-112, in the Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Minnesota Lynx forward Maya Moore is named MVP, becoming just the second player (after Lisa Leslie) to win all three of All-Star Game MVP, WNBA MVP presented by Samsung (2014) and WNBA Finals MVP presented by Boost Mobile (2013). Moore scores an All-Star Game-record 30 points, surpassing the mark of 29 set by Atlanta's Shoni Schimmel in 2014).

Indiana Fever forward Tamika Catchings – who enters the game as the career All-Star leader in minutes, made field goals, total rebounds and defensive rebounds – tallies eight points and moves ahead of Leslie as the all-time scoring leader in All-Star history. Catchings also moves into the top spot in WNBA All-Star Game history for the most selections (10) and most games played (9). Seattle guard Sue Bird, selected for the ninth time, plays in her eighth All-Star Game and moves into sole possession of second place in that category.

of Leslie as the all-time scoring leader in All-Star history. Catchings also moves into the top spot in WNBA All-Star Game history for the most selections (10) and most games played (9). Seattle guard Sue Bird, selected for the ninth time, plays in her eighth All-Star Game and moves into sole possession of second place in that category.

July 28, 2015: Indiana's Tamika Catchings passes Diana Taurasi (6,722) for second place on the WNBA's all-time regular-season points list.

July 31, 2015: Nancy Lieberman, a former WNBA player and head coach, becomes the second female hired as a full-time NBA assistant coach when she joins the staff of the Sacramento Kings.

August 2, 2015: Seattle Storm guard Sue Bird becomes the first player in WNBA history to amass 5,000 points and 2,000 assists. She is the 13th player to reach 5,000 points.

September 24, 2015: The Seattle Storm wins the 15th annual WNBA Draft Lottery presented by State Farm® and earns the top pick in the 2016 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm®. The Lottery is conducted in a televised event at ESPN's headquarters in Bristol during halftime of Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals between the Phoenix Mercury and Minnesota Lynx on ESPN2. Seattle, which entered the Lottery with the most chances to land the top pick (442 out of 1,000), wins the drawing for the second time in a row. Five months earlier, Seattle had used the top pick in the 2015 Draft to select Notre Dame guard Jewell Loyd, who would become the 2015 WNBA Rookie of the Year presented by Samsung.

October 10, 2015: In Game 3 of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile, Lynx forward Maya Moore hits one of the biggest shots in WNBA history, a game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer that gives Minnesota an 80-77 win for a 2-1 series edge. Moore's buzzer-beater is the latest in a WNBA Finals game since the New York Liberty's Teresa Weatherspoon hit a half-court buzzer-beater on Sept. 4, 1999 to win Game 2 of the WNBA Finals in Houston and send that series to a third and final game against the Comets.

October 14, 2015: Led by center Sylvia Fowles, a midseason acquisition who would be named MVP of the 2015 WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile, the Minnesota Lynx topples the Indiana Fever in Game 5 of the best-of-five series. Minnesota wins its third title in five seasons (2011, 2013) behind head coach Cheryl Reeve and the team's core group of veteran All-Stars in Maya Moore, Seimone Augustus, Lindsay Whalen and Rebekkah Brunson. The Lynx clinches a title on its home court for the first time.

November 2, 2015: In an event held at the University of Texas at Arlington, majority owner Bill Cameron announces that the Tulsa Shock, newly relocated to the Dallas Metroplex, will begin play in 2016 as the Dallas Wings.

November 4, 2015: The WNBA announces that Laurel J. Richie, the third President in league history, will be leaving to pursue other interests, including serving as a board member of several for-profit and not-for-profit institutions. Richie ends a tenure that began on April 21, 2011.

February 10, 2016: Lisa Borders is appointed by NBA Commissioner Adam Silver as the WNBA's fourth President. Borders brings more than 25 years of experience in operations, marketing, government relations and public service. At the time of the announcement, Borders was serving as Chair of The Coca-Cola Foundation and Vice President, Global Community Affairs at The Coca-Cola Company.

March 15, 2016: The WNBA and Verizon announce a new league-wide marquee partnership, making the wireless provider the league's most prominent marketing partner. As the marquee partner of the WNBA, Verizon branding will be prominently displayed on the front of 10 WNBA team jerseys: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Dallas Wings, Indiana Fever, Los Angeles Sparks, Minnesota Lynx, New York Liberty, Phoenix Mercury, Seattle Storm and Washington Mystics.

April 14, 2016: The WNBA Draft presented by State Farm® is held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. The Seattle Storm holds the first overall pick in the draft for the second consecutive year and selects University of Connecticut All-American Breanna Stewart, the first player in NCAA Division I history to be named Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four four times. For the first time in the history of the WNBA Draft, three players from the same school are selected with the top three picks – UConn's Stewart, Moriah Jefferson (No. 2 by the San Antonio Stars), and Morgan Tuck (No. 3 by the Connecticut Sun).

May 9, 2016: The WNBA announces the launch of WNBA LEAGUE PASS, the new full-season, live-game out-of-market subscription package that will provide fans with access to SINGLE GAME and TEAM PASS options for the first time. The new live game service, formerly called WNBA LiveAccess, will be available through WNBA.com and the WNBA App on iOS and Android devices. For the first time, WNBA LEAGUE PASS will be available on Apple TV (4th generation) and Chromecast through the WNBA App, providing users additional ways to watch WNBA games.
